S Fantuzzi

DIRECTOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES

Company law requires the Director to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and of the profit or loss of the Company for that year. In preparing those accounts, the Director is required to

- * select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- * make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- * prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Company will continue in business

The Director is responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company and to enable him to ensure the accounts comply with the Companies Act 2006. He is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities

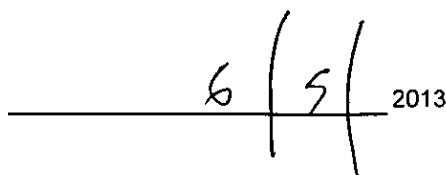

In preparing the above report, the Director has taken advantage of special exemptions applicable to small companies
