Dear Sir or Madam,

British Society of Blood Marrow Transplantation

Please find enclosed Special Resolution paperwork pertaining to a change of name and Articles of Association.

The general meeting was on the 3rd November and we sent all of the paperwork to be with you on the 8th November, but this was rejected because of an inserted 'and' in our name, which is not present on your register. The forms were returned to our registered address, but unfortunately due to Covid, the building is not staffed and therefore we were unaware of their return and the problem.

That is why I now forward to you the corrected forms, but we are outside of the 15th day period for submissions to you following general meetings.

Thanks for your help. If there are any issues, could you call me on the number at the head of this letter?

Many thanks,

Yours sincerely,

David Reynolds
