OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and activities

The "public" served by IAUP encompasses the students, staff and faculty of higher education institutions around the world, as well as the diverse communities served in turn by these institutions. The activities of the IAUP and its membership provides public benefit by (1) focusing the support of global higher education on behalf of issues on the agenda of the United Nations; (2) furthering role of higher education in promoting international understanding and global social change; and (3) capacity building and leadership development within the higher education sector itself, particularly in the global South.

Support for the United Nations

- IAUP is accredited by the UN Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC), the UN Department of Public Information (UN-DPI), and the UN Educational, Social and Cultural Organization (UNESCO), and works with several other UN departments and offices.

- Established in 1990, the IAUP/UN Commission on Disarmament Education, Conflict Prevention and Peace is the only joint commission to be established by the UN with an NGO. The IAUP/UN Commission works with the United Nations Office for Disarmament Affairs (UNODA) and has received funding from UNESCO, although in the year corresponding to this Report no activities were carried out due to the pandemic and post-pandemic problems.

Promoting international understanding and global social change

- The IAUP continues to work closely with the Institute for International Education (IIE), the Scholar Rescue Fund (SRF) program sponsored by IIE, which provides safe havens overseas for professors and research scholars threatened by domestic political conflicts. The IAUP established a working group to promote participation in the Scholar Rescue program by IAUP member presidents and their institutions.

- The IAUP has been instrumental in the development of the United Nations Academic Impact (UNAI), an initiative of UN Secretary General Ban Ki Moon. Academic Impact is a global initiative aligning institutions of higher education with the United Nations in actively supporting ten universal principles in the areas of human rights, literacy, sustainability and conflict resolution.

Capacity building and leadership development

Following on a successful launch of the inaugural Leadership Institute in July 2019, held in Aalborg, Denmark, the current IAUP Presidency organized the Second Seminar on Leadership Development for New and Emerging Presidents held June 6-9, 2022 in Mexico City. The event featured 23 higher education leaders and experts from 8 different countries that shared their perspectives on higher education leadership to 20 participants from 6 different countries, including USA, Mexico, Austria, Philippines, Bolivia, and Georgia. The Seminar provided participants with insights and mentorship from seasoned experts, strengthening their understanding of current trends, key issues, and best practices, as well as challenges stemming in particular from the pandemic and in preparation for the post pandemic era.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

On March 5-7, 2022 IAUP was one of the sponsors of the largest gathering of university Presidents in the USA: the American Council on Education Annual Meeting. Held in San Diego, California, several IAUP leaders were present, including Executive Committee members Gerald Reisinger (Austria), Kakha Shengelia (Georgia), Fernando León García (Mexico), Muhammed Sahin (Turkey), and Gonzalo Mendieta (Ecuador), as well as several colleagues from the USA such as Henry Stoeber (AGB), Sue Henderson (New Jersey City University), and Tomás Morales (CSU San Bernardino).

The IAUP was represented at the Santander Universidades Board Meeting held in Mexico City on March 30, 2022. Top higher education executives shared the progress made during 2021, particularly in terms of networking with universities, actions related to digital transformation, employment and employability, among other important higher education topics. Highlights included the Global Survey on Leadership Responses to COVID-19, by IAUP and Santander Universidades, the IAUP Triennial 2021 Virtual Conference, both organization's joint sponsorship of the American Council on Education Annual Meeting, and joint efforts in several future events.

In April 2022, IAUP launched its first Student Competition together with CETYS University, California State University, San Bernardino, and SIAS University, open to undergraduate students from member institutions who contributed business models aligned with the 2030 United Nations Development Agenda.

IAUP, the Federation of Private Mexican Institutions of Higher Education (FIMPES) and CETYS University co-hosted along with the International Network for Quality Assurance Agencies in Higher Education (INQAAHE), the INQAAHE 13th Biennial Forum held in Mexico City on June 6-9, 2022. With more than 150 attendees from 32 countries, the Forum covered topics related to educational quality, current trends and future challenges in education, the impact of data, and the use of artificial intelligence in quality assurance policies and processes, among other highly relevant aspects to achieve the sustainable development of higher education worldwide.

Renowned innovator in higher education and Chancellor of Southern New Hampshire University, Paul LeBlanc, served as the keynote speaker during a Breakfast Meeting with Mexican university presidents organized by Santander Universidades, IAUP, FIMPES and CETYS University in Mexico City on June 7, 2022.

Information about IAUP activities were widely disseminated to the public by some specialized periodicals and other media. Some details follow: IAUP President Fernando León García published articles or was interviewed by University World News (June 19, 2021; June 26, 2021), San Diego Union Tribune (October 15, 2021), The Edup Experience Podcast (January 24, 2022) and Crónica (June 7, 2022). Interviews with IAUP Secretary General Fernando Galván were conducted at the Rectoral Board Webinar (April 28, 2022) and The Edup Experience Podcast (June 28, 2022). More information about the main IAUP activities during this year was spread by University World News (August 5, 2021; August 22, 2021; November 27, 2021), Campus Milenio (June 1, 2022; June 9, 2022; June 10, 2022), Panorama Universitario (June 10, 2022) and El Vigía (June 11, 2022).

Structure, Governance and Management

The charity is controlled by its governing document, a deed of trust, and constitutes a limited company, limited by guarantee, as defined by the Companies Act 2006.

The charity is controlled by its governing document, a deed of trust, and constitutes a limited company, limited by guarantee, as defined by the Companies Act 2006.

IAUP is governed by a ten-member Board of Directors. This Board consists of the three current officers, the three immediate past officers, the officers elect, and (ex-officio) the Dean of Wroxton College, UK. Each Director serves a maximum of nine years in office, except for the Dean of Wroxton College, whose appointment is ex-officio. This provides both for continuity and for the regular regeneration of this important body. The Chair of the Board of Directors is the immediate past president. The activities of the Board of Directors are defined and guided by the Articles of Association and further defined and guided by the By-laws, which are subordinate to the Articles of Association.

The IAUP charity is managed by a three-member team of executive officers, including a President, Secretary-General and Treasurer. These officers are elected every three years by a General Assembly consisting of the entire membership of the IAUP, serving three years as officers-elect before being inaugurated. The most recent General Assembly was held via virtual format with Mexico City, Mexico as the base, on July 30, 2021. The next General Assembly, to coincide with the XX Triennial, will be in October 2024 in Beijing, China.

The IAUP does not maintain a permanent secretariat. Rather, most administrative support functions are undertaken by the staff at the universities at which the officers are based. Company secretary and accounting functions are contracted to an established firm in the United Kingdom. Legal services are provided on a fee-for-service basis by another established firm in the United Kingdom. This arrangement ensures cost-effective and expertise in the administration of the IAUP business.

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

The constitution of the organization requires:

-Section 6 of the Bylaws of the International Association of University Presidents Board of Directors

6.1 The Board of Directors is legally responsible for the management of the Charity and is the subject of Articles 15-17 of the Charity's Articles. The Board of Directors is comprised of ten persons: the President, Secretary General, and Treasurer from the current, immediate past, newly elected officers, and an ex-officio member. Elections take place every three years at the Triennial meeting of the General Assembly.

-Section 15.4 of the Articles of Association of the International Association of University Presidents.

At each Triennial General Assembly Meeting, the General Assembly Members shall elect a President-Elect, Secretary General-Elect, and Treasurer-Elect. Each shall serve as such from the end of the Triennial General Assembly Meeting at which they are elected until the end of the next following Triennial General Assembly Meeting.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of International Association Of University

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of International Association Of University Presidents ('the Company')

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Company for the year ended 30 June 2022.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities (applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Income is derived from members' subscriptions and donations. Where income is received in advance, an appropriate proportion is deferred and carried over to the subsequent accounting period.

Expenditure

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Taxation

The charity is exempt from corporation tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.

Foreign currencies

Assets and liabilities in foreign currencies are translated into sterling at the rates of exchange ruling at the balance sheet date. Transactions in foreign currencies are translated into sterling at the rate of exchange ruling at the date of transaction. Exchange differences are taken into account in arriving at the operating result.

Sponsoring universities

The three current officers of the Board have various costs associated with their positions within the IAUP charity, sponsored by each relevant Board member's regular employer, known as sponsoring universities.

These costs are paid direct and borne by the sponsoring universities, and they do not form part of the charity's income or expenditure as disclosed in the statement of financial activities.
