ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

a. REVIEW OF ACTIVITIES

The primary activity of 2022 involved preparing for the twelfth annual Gulf Research Meeting (GRM). As the pandemic was subsiding, it was decided to return to the 'in person' format for GRM 2022 after the 'online/virtual' GRM which took place in 2021. Those participants who did not wish to participate in person were accommodated online and the necessary IT infrastructure to facilitate this was arranged. The opening ceremony was live-streamed, thus reaching a much broader audience than the in-person audience in Cambridge.

The 2022 Gulf Research Meeting took place on 14-16 July 2022 at various colleges of the University of Cambridge and brought together about 250 participants from across the globe in 10 research workshops codirected by a total of 22 co-directors and covering a wide range of issues relevant to the Gulf region.

The following research workshops took place within the GRM 2022 framework:

- 1. Economic Statecraft, Coercion, and Resilience in the Gulf
- 2. Carbon Neutrality in the GCC: Between Good-intentioned Pledges and the Harsh Reality
- 3. Gulf States and the Indo-Pacific: Agents or Objects of Geopolitical Competition?
- 4. The Dimensions of Saudi Arabia's Soft Power
- Women in the GCC Socio-economic Contributions to the Urbanisation of Gulf Countries: Status, J Challenges, Aspirations
- Challenges of Change and Transformation in the Gulf During COVID Times: Social, Economic and Political Dimensions
- 7. Living Together Separately: Social and Cultural Implications of Migration to the GCC Countries
- 8. Tourism, Economic Diversification and Economic Diplomacy: Lessons from the Arabian Gulf
- 9. Gulf State Donors across the Humanitarian-Development-Peace Nexus
- Challenges in the COVID Environment: Lessons for Higher Education Reform in the Gulf
- 11. The Gulf, Russia and the Countries of the Commonwealth of Independent States (CIS).

A number of edited volumes based on research papers originally presented at Gulf Research Meetings were either published or under preparation during 2022:

- The Gulf States and the Horn of Africa: Interests, Influences and Instability (GRM 2018) Published (Hardback)
- 2. Higher Education in the Gulf: Quality Drivers (GRM 2019) Published (Hardback)
- 3. Urban Modernity in the Contemporary Gulf: Obsolescence and Opportunities (GRM 2019) Published (Hardback)
- Nationalization of Gulf Labour Markets: Higher Education and Skills Development in Industry 4.0 (GRM 2021) – Under preparation
- 5. Edited volumes were also under preparation based on the following GRM 2022 research workshops listed above: 2, 5, 7 and 10.

A Policy Forum was also planned and organised on July 12, 2022 at the Royal Society in London, just prior to the Gulf Research Meeting. The Forum began with a presentation of the Gulf Strategic Analysis 2022 Report prepared by the research team. The report consisted of a policy-oriented analysis of Gulf regional developments during the 12 months that preceded the Forum. This was followed by two panel sessions focusing on the key current political/security and economic/energy policy issues associated with the Gulf region.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

a. RESULTS FOR THE YEAR

The results for the year are set out in the attached financial statements. Total income amounted to £238,200 (2021: £69,980) which, after total expenditure of £272,265 (2021: £27,723), resulted in a net deficit of £31,920 (2021: surplus of £42,257) for the year. At the end of the year, the Charity had net assets of £16,287 (2021: £50,352).

RESERVES POLICY

At 31 December 2022, reserves amounted to £16,287 (2021: £50,352), of which £Nil were restricted (2021: £2,145).

The Trustees have agreed to put in place a reserves policy with the intention of building up and maintaining a six month operational reserve in future years to facilitate smooth operations, including planning and implementation of future Gulf Research Meetings, and enabling the Charity to cover delays in the receipt of income and other unforeseen circumstances in a timely manner.

This will be achieved through additional focused fundraising initiatives combined with well-reasoned cost reductions.

b. GOING CONCERN

The Trustees have reviewed forecasts and budgets and have a reasonable expectation that the Charity has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the forseeable future. Accordingly, the financial statements continue to be prepared on the going concern basis

c. FUTURE PLANS

The world is currently experiencing a wide range of conflicts. The question of how to address these conflicts and how to reach solutions is an important one for the Gulf region. This, together with the continuing transformations and transitions taking place in the Gulf countries gives rise to a challenging landscape to navigate into the future. It is precisely this that underscores the need to bring together knowledgeable researchers who have analysed the situation, in order to exchange views and identify innovative and sustainable paths into the future for the Gulf region. This is exactly the purpose of GRC Cambridge and the Gulf Research Meetings.

Looking to the future, the Trustees thus intend to focus particularly on the following:

- Continue the Gulf Research Meetings in face-to-face mode to maximise communication and synergy, with only very limited virtual-mode participation. Concentrate on choosing workshop topics of high relevance and workshop directors with excellent credentials.
- Ontinue to extend the GRC Cambridge interaction and engagement with the University of Cambridge environment. The goal is to enhance cooperation with various departments and centres of excellence within the University through collaborative research projects focusing on the Gulf region. This will require extending the GRC presence in Cambridge.
- Continue the work on establishing a GRC Cambridge Advisory Board of experts that could meet annually on the sidelines of the Gulf Research Meeting, with the goal of introducing new and innovatory ideas relating to the Gulf region and its path into the future.
- o Work on establishing long-term relationships with academic publishers to facilitate straightforward and timely publication of research papers originating from the Gulf Research Meetings.
- Stimulate deeper research collaboration on Gulf issues globally and provide a space for open and frank exchange of research-based views, where people of different backgrounds and specialties can gather together to gain a better understanding of the forces defining the Gulf region and help to shape these forces in creative ways.
