All such reports must be delivered in accordance with section 34 of the Companies (Audit, Investigations and Community Enterprise) Act 2004 and contain the information required by Part 7 of the Community Interest Company Regulations 2005. For further guidance see chapter 8 of the Regulator's guidance notes and the alternate example provided for a more complex company with more detailed notes.

In the space provided below, please insert a general account of the company's activities in the financial year to which the report relates, including a fair and accurate description of how they have benefited the community, or section of the community, which the company is intended to serve.

Foldup CIC undertakes the research and development of new kinds of creative events that use technology as an integral part of the event. These events are designed to welcome anyone who wants to take part.

During the financial year the company's activities have benefited the community in a number of ways, for example:

- * Beginning a partnership with Volunteering Kirklees to develop bespoke new technology to increase volunteering
- * Continuing to work with Copleston Maintaining Health Partnership, Creation Trust on the Aylesbury estate in South London and a number of other organisations to explore socially valuable uses of text messaging
- * Working with artists, scientists and makers to create public events in which artists, scientists and makers have chance to compare and contrast their ways of creating, and sharing, new knowledge
- * Developing an asset based approach to creating public events that celebrate people and organisations doing great things in places in England's north

(If applicable, please just state "A social audit report covering these points is attached").

PART 2 – CONSULTATION WITH STAKEHOLDERS – Please indicate who the company's stakeholders are, how the stakeholders have been consulted and what action, if any, has the company taken in response to feedback from its consultations? If there has been no consultation, this should be made clear.

The company's stakeholders fall into two groups, one group are partner organisations such as the BBC and the National Endowment for Science, Technology and the Arts, who wish to fund the development of innovative new uses of technology, the second group is members of the public who take part in creative events

We are in regular contact with partner organisations to update them on progress and outcomes, to incorporate their feedback into ongoing work, and to understand opportunities for future collaboration. At the same time we evaluate our events by talking to participants, and use this feedback both to improve the experience for future participants and to report back to partner organisations about new opportunities to use technology to enable wider participation in creative and socially valuable activities

(If applicable, please just state "A social audit report covering these points is attached").
