This template illustrates what the Regulator of Community Interest Companies considers to be best practice for completing a simplified community interest company report. All such reports must be delivered in accordance with section 34 of the Companies (Audit, Investigations and Community Enterprise) Act 2004 and contain the information required by Part 7 of the Community Interest Company Regulations 2005. For further guidance see chapter 8 of the Regulator's guidance notes and the alternate example provided for a more complex company with more detailed notes.

(N.B. A Filing Fee of £15 is payable on this document. Please enclose a cheque or postal order payable to Companies House)

PART 1 - GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE COMPANY'S ACTIVITIES AND IMPACT

In the space provided below, please insert a general account of the company's activities in the financial year to which the report relates, including a description of how they have benefited the community

AGRO provides activities, including community volunteering for people in recovery from alcohol and other drug misuse

AGRO provides information about recovery and helps to reduce the stigma about alcohol and other drug misuse within the community and wider population

AGRO members have benefited by taking part in activities to support their sustained recovery. Taking part in activities helps rebuild self-confidence and routine, and provides something to focus on in addition to the recovery journey. Through volunteering people in recovery have benefited from improved self-confidence, and more social networks and social capital. People see themselves as useful members of their community, which will make their sustained recovery easier.

(If applicable, please just state "A social audit report covering these points is attached")

(Please continue on separate continuation sheet if necessary)

PART 2 – CONSULTATION WITH STAKEHOLDERS – Please indicate who the company's stakeholders are, how the stakeholders have been consulted and what action, if any, has the company taken in response to feedback from its consultations? If there has been no consultation, this should be made clear
