PART 1 - GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE COMPANY'S ACTIVITIES AND IMPACT

In the space provided below, please insert a general account of the company's activities in the financial year to which the report relates, including a description of how they have benefited the community.

We have continued to deliver sessions to cricket clubs and groups promoting mental wellbeing and suicide prevention. In this period over one hundred was possible through a mixture of online and in person. This was alongside a range of online and printed resources made available to reach additional people with the same message.

Income for the financial year was down due to a national lottery grant application not being made. The intention is to do so again in the next year.
