THE CAMBRIDGE SECURITY INITIATIVE 2017 REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 MAY 2020

The Directors (also referred to as Trustees for the purpose of charity law) present their report with the financial statements of the charitable company for the period ended 31 May 2020. The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the accounting policies set out in the notes to the financial statements and comply with the charity's trust deed, applicable law and the requirements of the Statement of Recommended Practice, "Accounting and Reporting by Charities" 2019 and the Companies Act 2006.

Reference and Administrative Details

The Company was incorporated on 17 May 2017 and registered with the Charity Commission for England and Wales on 17 October 2017.

Structure, Governance and Management

The operation of the Charity is governed by its Memorandum and Articles of Association. It is a company limited by guarantee and a charity registered with the Charity Commission of England and Wales. HM Revenue Customs have recognised the charity for tax purposes. Since the charity only uses its funds for charitable purposes no taxation is then payable on the income or gains. The overall responsibility for the operations of the Charity and its finances is with the Directors.

Directors

The Directors who have served during the year were:

Dr A M Dawson, Sir R B Dearlove, Prof S A Halper, Dr S P Martland.

Appointment and Training of Directors

The power to appoint and remove Directors is vested with the Directors.

On appointment each Director receives copies of the principal constitutional and policy documents of the Company, with current and forward financial planning information. Directors are provided with regular updates of relevant information from the Charity Commission and other relevant sources.

Charitable objects

The objects of the charity are to advance education in relation to international security and intelligence issues through research, provision of educational programmes and collaborations in intelligence studies, teaching and research with national and international universities, the government of the UK and other nations.

Public Benefit

In determining activities of the organisation, The Cambridge Security Initiative 2017 trustees have paid due regard to Charity Commission guidance on public benefit.

Achievements

Since 17 October 2017. CSI 2017 has offered the 'International Security and Intelligence Programme' (ISI), a four-week university-level programme aimed at those with an academic or professional interest in intelligence and contemporary security threats. ISI offers a unique opportunity to work with leading practitioners and academics from the security and intelligence worlds. Chaired by Sir Richard Dearlove (formerly head of MI6, Britain's Secret Intelligence Service), the Programme was housed in Magdalene College, Cambridge in July/August 2018 and, similarly, 2019. The Programme has a capacity of 60 and attracts well-qualified undergraduate students, graduate students and practitioners from a wide range of countries. In 2018 ten applicants and in 2019 nine applicants were awarded full or partial scholarship funding on a needs/academic basis.

In mid-July 2018 and 2019 CSi 2017 ran its second and third conferences under the heading Intelligence and National Security Policy in a Changing World. These are two-day events held which all ISI students attend (gratis). Open to a wider audience and featuring contributions from senior figures from government, the agencies and academia, the Conference is regularly oversubscribed (capacity 150). Students wishing to attend who were in full-time education were generously subsidised. In 2018 c. twenty and in 2019 ten ISI Alumni were given free places.

CSI 2017 continues to undertake commissioned research and analysis all surpluses from which are used to support the Charity's educational objectives as outlined.

Since early during 2019/20, CSI has commissioned from experts brief analytical reports and interviews on a range of contemporary security and intelligence issues. These reports are open-access and published on the CSI website. These have been welcomed particularly by the growing CSI/ISI 'community'.

Unfortunately, the 2020 ISI Programme scheduled for July/August had, like so much else, to be cancelled:

Plans for future periods

The Charity will continue to develop its educational and consultancy portfolios building on the success of the International Security and Intelligence (ISI) programme and Conference and up-to-the-minute, commissioned analyses of security and intelligence issues both for private clients and to place in the public domain. These activities will generate the funds necessary to:

- continue to fund full and partial scholarships for students in full-time higher education wishing to attend future ISI programmes and/or Conferences (2019, total value, c. £60,000);
- continue to provide significant funding (2018 and 2019 £10,000 per annum) for a graduate student studying at the University of Cambridge in fields related to Security and Intelligence:
- to provide (2020/21) similar funding for a graduate student studying at the Department of War Studies, King's College London.

Should the public health environment prevent CSI running the ISI Programme as a residential course, it will offer a carefully planned on-line alternative which, it is hoped, will include an on-line Conference.

Financial Review

Income for the year was £322,084 (2019: £285,916) and Expenditure was £311,266 (2019: £252,745) resulting in a Net income for the year of £10,818 (2019: £33,170). ISI 2019 summer programme; non-payment of promised named scholarship funding covering five full scholarships; Totalling £23,280.

Risk Management

The Directors have examined the major strategic, business and operational risks which the charity faces and confirm that systems have been established to identify the appropriate action to be taken to manage those risks.

Reserves Policy

It is the intention of the Directors to establish a reserve, firstly to provide income to support the purposes of the Charity and secondly, as a fund from which capital can be withdrawn to cover budgeted expenditure not covered by current income. Free reserves at 31 May 2020 were £44,069.
