QUANTEDA INITIATIVE CIC
Accountants' Report

Accountants' report to the directors of
QUANTEDA INITIATIVE CIC

You consider that the company is exempt from an audit for the year ended 31 January 2022. You have acknowledged, on the balance sheet, your responsibilities for complying with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 with respect to accounting records and the preparation of accounts. These responsibilities include preparing accounts that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company at the end of the financial year and of its profit or loss for the financial year.

In accordance with your instructions, we have prepared the accounts which comprise the Profit and Loss Account and the Balance Sheet from the accounting records of the company and on the basis of information and explanations you have given to us.

We have not carried out an audit or any other review, and consequently we do not express any opinion on these accounts.

This template illustrates what the Regulator of Community Interest Companies considers to be best practice for completing a simplified community interest company report. All such reports must be delivered in accordance with section 34 of the Companies (Audit, Investigations and Community Enterprise) Act 2004 and contain the information required by Part 7 of the Community Interest Company Regulations 2005. For further guidance see chapter 8 of the Regulator's guidance notes and the alternate example provided for a more complex company with more detailed notes.

(N.B. A Filing Fee of £15 is payable on this document. Please enclose a cheque or postal order payable to Companies House)

PART 1 - GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE COMPANY'S ACTIVITIES AND IMPACT

In the space provided below, please insert a general account of the company's activities in the financial year to which the report relates, including a description of how they have benefited the community.

The objects of the Company are to carry on activities which benefit the community of open-source, text analysis software developers aimed at research and scientific analysis, especially those related to the open-source software library "quanteda" written for the R programming language, and related software, support services, and training and dissemination activities.

The main activities in the past financial year related to holding a virtual for a group based in Milan, although this was conducted via Zoom, and to promoting the open-source software supported by the company, through the website, blog posts, and social media. We also further developed our on-line tutorials.

In April 2021 we also release v3 of the quanteda software library for R.

(If applicable, please just state "A social audit report covering these points is attached").

(Please continue on separate continuation sheet if necessary.)

PART 2 – CONSULTATION WITH STAKEHOLDERS – Please indicate who the company's stakeholders are; how the stakeholders have been consulted and what action, if any, has the company taken in response to feedback from its consultations? If there has been no consultation, this should be made clear.

The company's stakeholders are the text analysis software development community and the users of the software that the Quanteda Initiative CIC supports. We have solicited their feedback following each training event, and solicited general feedback on the project through the projects feedback page on its open source software repository (GitHub).
