2.1.1 payment of the charity's debts and liabilities incurred before they cease to be a member;

4. OBJECTS

4.1 The charity's objects (the "Objects") are specifically restricted to the following:

4.1.1 To promote human rights (as set out in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and subsequent United Nations conventions and declarations) within the world of sport (in accordance with the Sporting Chance Principle) throughout the world by all or any of the following means:

- (a) monitoring abuses of human rights

4.1.2 In furtherance of each Object, but not otherwise, the directors shall have the power to engage in political activity, provided that the directors are satisfied that the proposed activities will further the purposes of the charity to an extent justified by the resources committed and the political activity is not the dominant means by which the charity carries out the Objects.

4.2 Nothing in the articles shall:

- 4.2.1 authorise an application of the property of the charity for purposes which are not charitable in accordance with sections 2 and 3 of the Charities Act 2011; and
- 4.2.2 authorise an application of the property of the charity for purposes which are not charitable in accordance with section 7 of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and/or section 2 of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

5. POWERS

5.1 The charity has power to do anything which is calculated to further its Object(s) or is conducive or incidental to doing so. In particular, the charity has power:

- 5.1.1 to manage and execute human rights projects related to sport;
- 5.1.2 to raise funds. In doing so, the charity must not undertake any taxable permanent trading activity and must comply with any relevant statutory regulations;
- 5.1.3 to buy, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any property and to maintain and equip it for use;
- 5.1.4 to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the property belonging to the charity. In exercising this power, the charity must comply as appropriate with sections 117 and 122 of the Charities Act 2011.

- 5.1.5 to borrow money and to charge the whole or any part of the property belonging to the charity as security for repayment of the money borrowed or as security for a grant or the discharge of an obligation. - 5.1.11 to employ and remunerate such staff as are necessary for carrying out the work of the charity. The charity may employ or remunerate a director only to the extent it is permitted to do so by article 5 and provided it complies with the conditions in that article;
- 5.1.12 to:
 - (a) deposit or invest funds;
 - (b) employ a professional fund-manager; and
 - (c) arrange for the investments or other property of the charity to be held in the name of a nominee;

 - (iii) investment performance is reviewed regularly with the Directors;
 - (iv) the delegation arrangement may be cancelled by the Directors at any time;

- (v) a review of the investment policy and the delegation arrangement shall be carried out at least annually;
- (vi) all payments due to the Financial Expert fall within a scale or a level which is agreed in advance and are notified promptly to the Directors on receipt;
- (vii) the Financial Expert must not do anything outside the powers of the Charity;

in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the trustees of a trust are permitted to do by the Trustee Act 2000;

- 5.1.13 to provide indemnity insurance for the directors in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011;
- 5.1.14 to pay out of the funds of the charity the costs of forming and registering the charity both as a company and as a charity.

5.2 Application of income and property

5.2.1 The income and property of the charity shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the Objects.

- (a) A director is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the charity or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by them when acting on behalf of the charity.
- (b) A director may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the charity's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011.
- (c) A director may receive an indemnity from the charity in the circumstances specified in article 37.
- (d) A director may not receive any other benefit or payment unless it is authorised by article 5.

5.2.2 Subject to article 5, none of the income or property of the charity may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of the charity. This does not prevent a member who is not also a director receiving:

- (a) a benefit from the charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the charity;
- (b) reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the charity.

Benefits and payments to charity directors and connected persons

5.3 General provisions

5.3.1 No director or connected person may:

- (a) buy any goods or services from the charity on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;
- (b) sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the charity;
- (c) be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the charity;
- (d) receive any other financial benefit from the charity;

unless the payment is permitted by article 5.4, or authorised by the court or the prior written consent of the Charity Commission has been obtained.

In this article a 'financial benefit' means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value.

5.4 Scope and powers permitting directors' or connected persons' benefits

- 5.4.1 A director or connected person may receive a benefit from the charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the charity provided that a majority of the directors do not benefit in this way.
- 5.4.2 A director or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the charity where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, sections 185 and 186 of the Charities Act 2011.
- 5.4.3 Subject to article 5.5 a director or connected person may provide the charity with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the charity by the director or connected person.
- 5.4.4 A director or connected person may receive interest on money lent to the charity at a reasonable and proper rate which must be not more than the Bank of England bank rate (also known as the base rate).
- 5.4.5 A director or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the director or connected person to the charity. The amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper. The director concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion.
- 5.4.6 A director or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the charity on the same terms as members of the public.

5.5 Payment for supply of goods only – controls

5.5.1 The charity and its directors may only rely upon the authority provided by article 5.4.3 if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

- (a) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in an agreement in writing between the charity or its directors (as the case may be) and the director or connected person supplying the goods ("the supplier") under which the supplier is to supply the goods in question to or on behalf of the charity.
- (b) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.
- (c) The other directors are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the charity to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a director or connected person. In reaching that decision the directors must balance the advantage of contracting with a director or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.
- (d) The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with them with regard to the supply of goods to the charity.
- (e) The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of directors is present at the meeting.
- (f) The reason for their decision is recorded by the directors in the minute book.
- (g) A majority of the directors then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by article 5.

5.5.2 In articles 5.4 and 5.5:

- (a) "charity" includes any company in which the charity:
 - (i) holds more than 50% of the shares; or
 - (ii) controls more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares; or
 - (iii) has the right to appoint one or more directors to the board of the company.
- (b) "connected" person' includes any person within the definition in article 41 'Interpretation'.

6. DECLARATION OF DIRECTORS' INTERESTS

A director must declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which they have in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the charity or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the charity which has not previously been declared. A director must absent himself or herself from any discussions of the charity directors in which it is possible that a conflict will arise between their duty to act solely in the interests of the charity and any personal interest (including but not limited to any personal financial interest).

7. CONFLICTS OF INTERESTS OF DIRECTORS

7.1 Each director must declare to the Board of Directors the nature and extent of:

7.1.1 any direct or indirect interest which they have in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the charity; and

7.1.2 any duty or any direct or indirect interest which they have which conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the charity or their duties to the charity.

7.2 For the avoidance of doubt, this declaration:

7.2.1 includes those interests or duties of which each of the other directors are, or ought reasonably to be already aware; and

7.2.2 does not include any interests that do not relate to the interests of the charity or to the matter being decided upon.

7.3 If a director's interest or duty cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest or a conflict of duties with or in respect of the charity, the Board of Directors may decide that such director is entitled to participate in the decision-making process, to be counted in the quorum and to vote in relation to the matter. Any uncertainty about whether a director's interest or duty is likely to give rise to a conflict shall be determined by a majority decision to be adopted by the Board of Directors, i.e. the other directors taking part in the decision-making process.

7.4 If a director's interest or duty gives rise (or could reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise) to a conflict of interest or a conflict of duties with or in respect of the charity, such director may participate in the decision-making process and may be counted in the quorum and vote unless:

7.4.1 the decision could result in the director or any person who is connected with them receiving a benefit other than reimbursement of approved expenses;

7.4.2 a majority of the other directors participating in the decision-making process decide to the contrary.

7.5 If a director with a conflict of interest or conflict of duties may not participate in the decision-making process, such director must:

7.5.1 take part in the decision-making process only to such extent as in the view of the other directors is necessary to inform the debate;

7.5.2 not be counted in the quorum for that part of the process; and 7.5.3 withdraw during the vote and have no vote on the matter.

7.6 Where a director has a conflict of interest or conflict of duties and such director has complied with their obligations under these Articles in respect of that conflict:

7.6.1 the director shall not be in breach of their duties to the charity by withholding confidential information from the charity if to disclose it would result in a breach of any other duty or obligation of confidence owed by the director; and

7.6.2 the director shall not be accountable to the charity for any benefit expressly permitted under these Articles which they or any person connected with the director derives from any matter or from any office, employment or position.

7.7 If a conflict of interests arises for a director because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person and the conflict is not authorised by virtue of any other provision in these Articles, the unconflicted directors may authorise such a conflict of interests where one of the following conditions apply:

7.7.1 the conflicted director is absent from the part of the meeting at which there is discussion of any arrangement or transaction affecting that other organisation or person;

7.7.2 the conflicted director does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when considering whether a quorum of directors is present at the meeting; or

7.7.3 the unconflicted directors consider it is in the interests of the charity to authorise the conflict of interests in the circumstances applying.

7.8 The Board of Directors must ensure a register of directors' interests (including, for the avoidance of doubts, conflicts) in relation to their roles as such with the charity is maintained.

7.9 All acts done by a director shall, even if afterwards discovered that there was a defect in their appointment or that they were disqualified from holding office or had vacated office, be as valid as if such director had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a director.

8. MEMBERS

8.1 The names of the members of the charity must be entered in the register of members.

8.2 The register of members is to be maintained and updated from time to time by the secretary.

8.3 New members may be included in the membership by unanimous vote by the existing members to invite new members to the charity;

8.4 If the applicant is refused:

8.4.1 the directors must, on behalf of the members, inform the applicant in writing of the reasons for the refusal within twenty-one (21) days of the decision; and

8.4.2 the members must consider any written representations the applicant may make about the decision. The members' decisions following any written representations must be notified to the applicant by the directors, on behalf of the members, in writing and shall be final.

9. SPECIFIC DUTIES OF THE MEMBERS

9.1 Each member shall perform its duties with due care and in the best interest of the charity, in particular in accordance with any applicable law, these Articles, any rules and policies applicable to the members.

9.2 In particular, each member shall, at all times:

9.2.1 use its best efforts to ensure the charity is carrying out its mission and Objects (as set out in these Articles) and acts for the public benefit and no other purpose;

9.2.2 comply with English law, these Articles, any rules and policies adopted by the members and any rules and policies adopted by the board of directors and applicable to the members;

9.2.3 use its best efforts to ensure that they are accountable to the charity and not to stakeholders, donors, patrons or any other person; and 9.2.4 use its best efforts to ensure the charity is accountable.

10. TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

10.1 A member shall cease to be a member if:

10.1.1 they die, or if it is an organisation, ceases to exist;

10.1.2 they resign in writing to the charity. Such resignation to be effective immediately where there is at least one other member named on the register of members; or

10.1.3 they are excluded by the other members by unanimous vote of the remaining members with written justification that it is in the best interest of the charity if:

(a) the member being excluded has been given at least twenty-one (21) days' notice in writing of the meeting of the directors at which the resolution will be proposed and the reasons why it is to be proposed; and

(b) the member to be excluded or, at the option of the member to be excluded, the member's representative (who need not be a member of the charity) has been allowed to make representations to the meeting.

10.2 Membership is not transferrable and shall cease on death, resignation, exclusion or in any other circumstances unless otherwise specified in writing and signed by a member of the board of directors.

10.3 Any contract or agreement (other than membership) between the leaving member and the charity must be terminated separately, in writing, by any of the charity and/or the leaving member, in accordance with its terms.

11. GENERAL MEETINGS

- 11.1 The charity must hold its first annual general meeting within fifteen (15) months after the date of its incorporation.

- 12.2 A general meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed by a majority in number of members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority who together hold not less than 90 percent of the total voting rights.
- 12.3 The notice must specify the date time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. If the meeting is to be an annual general meeting, the notice must say so. The notice must also contain a statement setting out the right of members to appoint a proxy under section 324 of the Companies Act 2006 and article 14.
- 12.4 The notice must be given to all the members and to the directors and auditors.
- 12.5 The proceedings at a meeting shall not be invalidated because a person who was entitled to receive notice of the meeting did not receive it because of an accidental omission by the charity.

13. PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 13.1 No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present.
- 13.2 A quorum is:
 - 13.2.1 all members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote upon the business to be conducted at the meeting; or
 - 13.2.2 one tenth of the total membership at the time whichever is the greater.

- 13.3 The authorised representative of a member organisation shall be counted in the quorum.

- 13.4.3 The directors must reconvene the meeting and must give at least seven (7) clear days' notice of the reconvened meeting stating the date, time and place of the meeting.

- 13.5 General meetings shall be chaired by the person or in their absence, by a member of the board of directors who has been appointed to chair meetings of the directors.
- 13.5.1 If there is no such person or they are not present within fifteen (15) minutes of the time appointed for the meeting a member nominated by the members shall chair the meeting.
 - 13.5.2 If there is only one (1) member present and willing to act, they shall chair the meeting.

- 13.6 The members present in person or by proxy at a meeting may resolve by ordinary resolution that the meeting shall be adjourned.
- 13.6.1 The person who is chairing the meeting must decide the date, time and place at which the meeting is to be reconvened unless those details are specified in the resolution.
 - 13.6.2 No business shall be conducted at a reconvened meeting unless it could properly have been conducted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place.
 - 13.6.3 If a meeting is adjourned by a resolution of the members for more than seven (7) days, at least seven (7) clear days' notice shall be given of the reconvened meeting stating the date, time and place of the meeting.

- 13.7 Any vote at a meeting shall be decided by a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, the show of hands a poll is demanded:
- 13.7.1 by the person chairing the meeting; or
 - 13.7.2 by all members present in person or by proxy and having the right to vote at the meeting; or
 - 13.7.3 by a member or members present in person or by proxy representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting.
- 13.8 The declaration by the person who is chairing the meeting of the result of a vote shall be conclusive unless a poll is demanded.
- 13.9 The result of the vote must be recorded in the minutes of the charity but the number or proportion of votes cast need not be recorded.
- 13.10 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn, before the poll is taken, but only with the consent of the person who is chairing the meeting.
- 13.11 If the demand for a poll is withdrawn the demand shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.
- 13.12 A poll must be taken as the person who is chairing the meeting directs, who may appoint scrutineers (who need not be members) and who may fix a time and place for declaring the results of the poll.
- 13.13 The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll is demanded.
- 13.14 A poll demanded on the election of a person to chair a meeting or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately.
- 13.15 A poll demanded on any other question must be taken either immediately or at such time and place as the person who is chairing the meeting directs.

- 13.18 If a poll is demanded the meeting may continue to deal with any other business that may be conducted at the meeting.

14. CONTENT OF PROXY NOTICES

- 14.1 Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a "proxy notice") which:
- 14.1.1 states the name and address of the member appointing the proxy;

- 14.1.2 identifies the person appointed to be that member's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;
 - 14.1.3 is signed by or on behalf of the member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the directors may determine; and
 - 14.1.4 is delivered to the charity in accordance with the articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate.
- 14.2 The charity may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.
- 14.3 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.
- 14.4 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:
- 14.4.1 allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting; and
 - 14.4.2 appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

15. DELIVERY OF PROXY NOTICES

- 15.1 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the charity by or on behalf of that person.
- 15.2 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the charity a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.
- 15.3 A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.
- 15.4 If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor's behalf.

16. WRITTEN RESOLUTIONS

- 16.1 A resolution in writing agreed by a simple majority (or in the case of a special resolution by a majority of not less than 75%) of the members who would have been entitled to vote upon it had it been proposed at a general meeting shall be effective provided that:
- 16.1.1 a copy of the proposed resolution has been sent to every eligible member;
 - 16.1.2 a simple majority (or in the case of a special resolution a majority of not less than 75%) of members has signified its agreement to the resolution; and 16.1.3 it is contained in an authenticated document which has been received at the registered office within the period of twenty-eight (28) days beginning with the circulation date.

16.2 A resolution in writing may comprise several copies to which one (1) or more members have signified their agreement.

16.3 In the case of a member that is an organisation, its authorised representative may signify its agreement.

17. VOTES OF MEMBERS

17.1 Subject to article 9, every member, whether an individual or an organisation, shall have one (1) vote.

17.2 Any objection to the qualification of any voter must be raised at the meeting at which the vote is tendered and the decision of the person who is chairing the meeting shall be final.

17.3 Any organisation that is a member of the charity may nominate any person to act as its representative at any meeting of the charity.

17.4 The organisation must give written notice to the charity of the name of its representative.
