 - (a) obtain all requisite Environmental Licences applicable to the Charged Property and comply with the terms and conditions of the same;
 - (b) comply with all Environmental Laws applicable to the Charged Property and not permit a contravention of the same;
 - (c) notify the Bank of the receipt of and content of all claims, notices or other communication in respect of any alleged breach of any Environmental Law or the terms and conditions of any Environmental Licences which may, if substantiated, have a material adverse effect on the market value of the Charged Property and shall forthwith take such steps as the Bank may direct to remedy and/or cease the continuation of any such alleged breach;
 - (d) promptly pay all fees and other charges in respect of any Environmental Licence applicable to the Charged Property;
 - (e) forthwith notify the Bank of the receipt of and the contents of any notices or other communication varying or suspending any Environmental Licence relating to the Charged Property and forthwith take such steps as the Bank may direct to re-instate in full force and effect any Environmental Licence so varied or suspended;
 - (f) permit the Bank or its agents at any time to enter upon the Charged Property or any other relevant premises for the purpose of establishing whether or not the Company is complying fully with its obligations under this sub-clause 14 (1)(f);
 - (g) forthwith supply the Bank with copies of any environmental reports, audits or studies undertaken in relation to the Charged Property.

- (2) The Company HEREBY AGREES to indemnify the Bank and as a separate covenant any Receiver against all costs, claims, demands, expenses, charges, assessments, impositions, fines and sums (whether imposed by deed or statute or otherwise or whether of the nature of capital or revenue and even though of a wholly novel character) and the consequences of any proceedings or prosecutions brought against or suffered or incurred by the Bank and or any Receiver arising directly or indirectly from or in connection with any breach by the Company of any Environmental Law. If any such sums shall be paid by the Bank or any Receiver, the same shall be paid by the Company on demand with interest as provided in sub-clause (2) from the time or respective times of the same having been paid or incurred by the Bank or the Receiver as the case may be but the Bank shall not be deemed to have taken possession of the Charged Property by reason of such payment.

Continuing Security

15. The security created by this Mortgage Debenture shall be a continuing security notwithstanding any settlement of account or other matter or thing whatsoever and shall be without prejudice and in addition to and shall not merge with any other security (either by way of mortgage, equitable charge or otherwise howsoever) which the Bank may now or at any time hereafter hold on all or any part of the assets of the Company or of any other person for or in respect of all or any part of the Secured Obligations.

Enforcement

16. Sections 17 and 20 of the 1881 Act shall not apply to this security. This security shall become immediately enforceable and the power of sale and other powers conferred by Section 19 of the 1881 Act, as varied or extended by this security, shall be exercisable immediately at any time after a notice by the Bank demanding payment of and/or discharge of any of the Secured Obligations shall have been served by the Bank on the Company.

Appointment of Receiver or Administrator

17. (1) At any time after this security shall have become enforceable or after a petition has been presented under Part III of the 1989 Order applying for an administration order in relation to the Company, the Bank may by writing under the hand of any officer or manager of the Bank appoint any person (or persons) to be a receiver of the Charged Property or any part or parts thereof ("the Receiver"). Where the Bank appoints more than one person as a Receiver such persons shall be entitled to exercise any powers conferred on them jointly and/or severally as the Bank may specify in the instrument of appointment.

- (2) Any Receiver shall hold office until he is removed, or his office is resigned or vacated, in accordance with Article 55 of the 1989 Order, when the Bank may similarly appoint another person in his stead.
- (3) Any Receiver shall be the agent of the Company and the Company shall be solely responsible for his acts or defaults and for his remuneration (which for the avoidance of doubt, shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Clause 20(2)).
- (4) The Bank is not entitled to appoint a Receiver solely as a result of the obtaining of a moratorium (or anything done with a view to obtaining a moratorium) under the 2002 Order except with the leave of the court.
- (5) The Bank may not appoint an administrative receiver (as defined in Article 5(1) of the 1989 Order) over the Charged Property if the Bank is prohibited from so doing by section 59A of the 1989 Order (incorporated by Article 5 of the 2005 Order) and no exception to the prohibition on appointing an administrative receiver applies.
- (6) The Bank may under the hand of any official or manager appoint an administrator of the Company.

Powers of Mortgagee and Receivers

- 18. (1) The powers conferred on mortgagees by the Conveyancing and Law of Property Acts 1881 to 1911 but without the restrictions contained in Section 20 of the 1881 Act shall apply to this security except in so far as they are expressly or impliedly excluded and where there is any ambiguity or conflict between the powers contained in the Conveyancing and Law of Property Acts 1881 to 1911 and those contained in this security the terms of this security shall prevail.
- (2) Any Receiver who is an administrative receiver (as such term is defined in Article 5(1) of the 1989 Order to the extent permitted by the 2005 Order shall have the powers conferred on administrative receivers by Article 52 of and Schedule 1 to the 1989 Order (or, in the case of a Receiver in England and Wales, the powers conferred by Section 42 of and Schedule 1 to the Insolvency Act 1986) (or, in the case of a Receiver in Scotland, the powers conferred by Section 55 of and Schedule 2 to the Insolvency Act 1986).
- (3) Where any receiver is appointed by the Bank to be a Receiver of part only of the Charged Property and is not, as a result, an administrative receiver as aforesaid, such Receiver shall have all the powers specified in Schedule 1 of the 1989 Order (or, in the case of a Receiver in England and Wales, specified in Schedule 1 of the Insolvency Act 1986) (or, in the case of a Receiver in Scotland, the powers conferred by Schedule 2 to the Insolvency Act 1986) which he would have were he an administrative receiver insofar as such powers are appropriate in connection with dealing with the property of the Company in respect of which he has been appointed.

- (4) In the event of any action, proceedings or steps being taken to exercise or enforce any powers or remedies conferred by any prior mortgage, charge or encumbrance against the Charged Property or any part thereof, the Bank may redeem such mortgage, charge or encumbrance or procure the transfer thereof to itself and may settle the accounts of the prior mortgagee, chargee or encumbrancer and any accounts so settled shall be conclusive and binding on the Company and all principal moneys, interest, costs, charges and expenses of and incidental to such redemption and transfer shall be paid by the Company to the Bank on demand and shall for the avoidance of doubt form part of the Secured Obligations.
19. In the exercise of the powers hereby conferred the Bank or any Receiver may sever and sell plant, machinery or other fixtures belonging to the Company separately from the property to which they may be annexed.
20. Subject to Article 50 of the 1989 Order and Article 150A of the 1989 Order (incorporated by Article 7 of the 2005 Order) all monies received by any Receiver shall be applied by him in the following order:
 - (1) in payment of the costs, charges and expenses of and incidental to the appointment of the Receiver and the exercise of all or any of his powers and of all outgoings paid by him;
 - (2) in payment of remuneration to the Receiver at such reasonable and proper rates as may be agreed between him and the Bank;
 - (3) in or towards discharge of the other liabilities secured hereby referred to in Clause 2(1)(c) and interest thereon;
 - (4) to the Bank in or towards discharge of all other Secured Obligations in such order as the Bank may from time to time require and in connection therewith the Receiver: (a) will hold funds in such currencies as may be appropriate having regard to the currencies of the Secured Obligations; and (b) will, if required by the Bank set aside funds to provide for the payment of contingent Secured Obligations; and

- (5) the surplus (if any) shall be paid to the Company or other person entitled to it; and neither the Bank nor any Receiver shall be bound (whether by virtue of Section 24(8) of the 1881 Act, which is hereby varied accordingly, or otherwise) to pay or appropriate any receipt or payment first towards interest rather than principal or otherwise in any particular order as between any moneys secured by this Mortgage Debenture.

Power of attorney and delegation

21. The Company hereby irrevocably appoints by way of security and in order more fully to secure performance of its obligations hereunder each of the Bank and any person nominated by the Bank including every Receiver appointed hereunder as attorney of the Company with full power of substitution for the Company and in its name and on its behalf and as its act and deed to execute, seal and deliver and otherwise perfect any deed, assurance, agreement, instrument or act which may be required or deemed proper by the Bank (in the absolute discretion of the Bank) for any of the purposes of this security. The Bank shall have full power to delegate the power conferred on it by this Clause 21, but no such delegation shall preclude the subsequent exercise of such power by the Bank itself or preclude the Bank from making a subsequent delegation thereof to some other person. Any such delegation may be revoked by the Bank at any time. The power of attorney hereby granted is as regards the Bank, its delegates and any such Receiver granted irrevocably and for value as part of the security constituted by the Mortgage Debenture to secure proprietary interests in and the performance of obligations owed to the respective donees within the meaning of the Powers of Attorney Act (Northern Ireland) 1971.
22. The Bank may at any time and from time to time delegate by power of attorney or in any other manner to any person or persons or fluctuating body of persons all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions which are for the time being exercisable by the Bank under this Mortgage Debenture in relation to the Charged Property or any part thereof and such delegation may be made upon such terms and conditions (including power to sub-delegate) and subject to such regulations as the Bank may think fit and the Bank shall not be in any way liable or responsible to the Company for any loss or damage arising from any act, default, omission or misconduct on the part of any such delegate or sub-delegate.

Liability

23. The Bank, its delegates and sub-delegates shall not in any circumstances (either by reason of any entry by it into or taking by it of possession of the Charged Property or any part thereof or for any other reason whatsoever and whether as mortgagee in possession or on any other basis whatsoever) be liable to account to the Company for anything except the Bank's own actual receipts or be liable to the Company for any loss or damage arising from any realisation by the Bank of the Charged Property or any part thereof or from any act, default or omission of the Bank in relation to the Charged Property or any part thereof or from any exercise or non-exercise by the Bank of any power, authority or discretion conferred upon it in relation to the Charged Property or any part thereof by or pursuant to this Mortgage Debenture or by the Conveyancing and Law of Property Acts 1881 to 1911. All the provisions of this Clause 23 shall apply in respect of any Receiver appointed hereunder or any delegate or sub-delegate thereof as if references to the Bank were references to such Receiver or (as the case may be) to such delegate or sub-delegate.

24. The Bank shall have no liability to the Company whatsoever in relation to the acts or omissions of any Receiver or any delegates or sub-delegates of any Receiver.

Other rights

25. The Bank shall have a lien on all securities or other property of the Company held by it whether for safe custody or otherwise.
26. The Bank shall be entitled (as well before as after demand hereunder) to set off against any liability of the Company to it any financial obligation to, or any sum held, received or receivable on behalf of the Company by the Bank such rights extending (without limitation to the generality of the foregoing) to the set-off of credit balances on any account(s) (whether current or otherwise or subject to notice or not) and further provided that, if the liability or any part thereof is in a different currency from any financial obligations or sum (including a credit balance) against which the Bank seeks to set it off, the Bank shall be entitled to utilise the currency of such financial obligation or sum for the purchase at the spot rate of exchange of an amount in the currency of the liability not exceeding the amount of such liability and also to pay out any additional sum which the United Kingdom Government or any other governmental, regulatory, executive or controlling body of any other jurisdiction may require the Bank to pay for such currency.
27. If the Bank receives or is deemed to be affected by notice, whether actual or constructive, of any subsequent charge or other interest in favour of any third party affecting any part of the Charged Property or the proceeds of sale thereof the Bank may open a new account or accounts with the Company. If the Bank does not open a new account or accounts it shall nevertheless be treated as if it had done so at the time when it received or was deemed to have received notice and as from that time all payments made to the Bank shall be credited or be treated as having been credited to such new account(s) and shall not operate to reduce the amount for which this Mortgage Debenture is security.

28. In case the Company shall have more than one account with the Bank it shall be lawful for the Bank at any time and without prior notice forthwith to transfer all or any part of any balance standing to the credit of any such account to any other such account which may be in debit.

Avoidance of payments and retention of security

29. (1) Any release, discharge or settlement between the Company and the Bank shall be conditional upon no security, disposition, assurance or payment to the Bank by the Company or any other person being void, set aside or ordered to be refunded pursuant to any enactment or law relating to bankruptcy, liquidation or insolvency or for any reason whatever and if such condition shall not be fulfilled the Bank shall be entitled to enforce this Mortgage Debenture subsequently as if such release, discharge or settlement had not occurred and any such payment had not been made. The Bank shall be entitled to concede or compromise any claim that any such security, disposition, assurance or payment is liable to avoidance or repayment without prejudice to its rights hereunder.
- (2) The Bank shall at its option be entitled to retain any security constituted by or pursuant to Clause 3 for a period of up to 25 months after the payment, discharge or satisfaction of all moneys, obligations and liabilities that are or may become due, owing or incurred to or in favour of the Bank from the Company and/or any other person and notwithstanding any such payment, discharge or satisfaction, in the event of the commencement of winding-up of or the making of an application for an administration order in respect of the person making such payment or effecting such discharge or satisfaction at any time within the said period of 25 months, the Bank shall be entitled to retain any such security for such further period as the Bank may determine.

Remedies, waivers and consents

30. (1) No failure on the part of the Bank to exercise, and no delay on its part in exercising, any right or remedy under this Mortgage Debenture will operate as a waiver thereof, nor will any single or partial exercise of any right or remedy preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or remedy. The rights and remedies provided in this Mortgage Debenture are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by law.
- (2) Any waiver and any consent by the Bank under this Mortgage Debenture must be in writing and may be given subject to any conditions thought fit by the Bank. Any waiver or consent shall be effective only in the instance and for the purpose for which it is given.

Payments

31. (1) All sums due and payable by the Company under this Mortgage Debenture shall be made in full without any set-off or counter-claim and free and clear of and (subject as provided in the next sentence) without deduction for or on account of any future or present taxes. If:
- (a) the Company is required by any law to make any deduction or withholding from any sum payable by the Company to the Bank hereunder; or
 - (b) the Bank is required by law to make any payment on account of tax (other than tax on its overall net income) or otherwise, on or in relation to any amount received or receivable by the Bank hereunder;
- then the sum payable by the Company in respect of which such deduction, withholding or payment is required to be made shall be increased to the extent necessary to ensure that, after the making of such deductions, withholding or payment, the Bank receives and retains (free from any liability in respect of any such deduction, withholding or payment) a net sum equal to the sum which it would have received and so retained had no such deduction, withholding or payment been made.
- (2) The Company shall have no rights in respect of the application by the Bank of any sums received, recovered or realised by the Bank under this Mortgage Debenture.

Warranties

32. The Company hereby represents and warrants that:
- (1) the execution and delivery of this Mortgage Debenture by the Company and the performance of its obligations hereunder, and compliance with the provisions hereof, will not (i) contravene any existing applicable law, statute, statutory instrument, rule or regulation or any judgment, decree or permit to which it is subject; (ii) conflict with, or result in any breach of any of the terms of, or constitute a default under, any agreement or other instrument to which the Company is a party or is subject or by which it or any of its property is bound; or (iii) contravene or conflict with any provision of the Company's Memorandum and Articles of Association; and Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, such assignments, transfers, mortgages, charges, applications, notices or other documents shall be in such form as shall be prepared on behalf of the Bank and may contain provisions such as are herein contained or provisions to the like effect and/or such other provisions of whatsoever kind as the Bank shall consider requisite for the improvement or perfection of the security constituted by or pursuant to this Mortgage Debenture. The obligations of the Company under this Clause 33(1) shall be in addition to and not in substitution for the covenants for further assurance deemed to be included herein by virtue of Section 7(1)(C) of the 1881 Act.
