Statement of Director's Responsibilities

Company law requires the Director to prepare Accounts that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and of the profit or loss for its financial year. In doing so the Director is required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent
- prepare the Accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Company will continue in business.

The Director is responsible for maintaining proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company and to enable the Director to ensure that the Accounts comply with the Companies Act 1985. The Director is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Auditors

The Company has remained dormant (within the meaning of Section 249AA of the Companies Act 1985) since its incorporation on 21 October 2005 and is exempt from the obligation to appoint auditors
