The trustees, who are also directors for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their annual report incorporating the strategic report and financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2019. The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the accounting policies set out in the notes to the financial statements and comply with the charitable company's Articles of Association, the Companies Act 2006 and the Statement of Recommended Practice, "Accounting and Reporting by Charities" issued in January 2015.

Objectives

"For a Scotland without poverty or disadvantage"

Our mission is to change people's lives for the better. To bring together people, their communities, charities and public bodies to develop solutions to some of the deepest social problems. We help essential charities become extraordinary charities, allowing them to change the lives of the most vulnerable and transform our society.

We achieve this by funding and supporting organisations who can have the greatest social impact. Inspiring Scotland pioneered the venture philanthropy model in Scotland. This is an approach to charitable giving that applies principles such as long-term funding and development support to the third sector which means that charities are more resilient, effective, and can reach and support more people as a result

Through our model of thematic funds, managed and supported by a dedicated staff team, we add value to any funds invested, and;

- Strengthen the organisations and communities that tackle social issues so that they can better address those issues and help more people.
- Inform and influence government, local authorities and public bodies so that they can better understand and react to social issues faced by Scotland's people.
- Foster innovation and encourage new ideas to tackle social issues in more effective ways.
- Support, develop and connect the people who are at the forefront of tackling social issues so that they can learn from one another and have the skills and resilience to take their organisations forward and support more people.
- Make it possible for philanthropists, government, public bodies and charities to spend money more effectively in the fight against poverty and disadvantage.

The funds and our way of working all contribute to our goal of creating and sustaining positive social impact.

Activities

The main activities undertaken in the period to achieve our objectives were as follows:

- (1) Continuing investment and development in funds designed, developed and operated by Inspiring Scotland. These funds comprise the 14:19 Fund, Link Up, Thrive and intandem.
- (2) Partnering with Scottish Government to support the operation and development of key funds. The funds supported are Cashback for Communities ("Cashback"), Autism, Learning Disabilities, Support in The Right Direction (SiRD) and Survivor Support Innovation and Improvement (Survivors) fund.

- (3) Further developing an advisory support service to provide consultancy services to selected charities, not within existing funds or programmes, to build their capacity and resilience so they can better help those experiencing disadvantage.
- (4) Researching possible themes and funding options for new funds and new approaches to solving Scotland's entrenched social problems and transforming lives. In particular, Inspiring Scotland was focused on developing Our Future Now the successor fund to 14:19, which launched with funding of £1.9m from Scotlish Government in April 2019.

Achievements and performance

During the period, Inspiring Scotland operated and managed nine funds (2018 – nine) and continued to deliver the 2017-22 Corporate Plan. The key Corporate Plan activities delivered in the year were the development of Our Future Now the successor fund to 14:19 and further development of our advisory services proposition.

The completion of 14:19, the first ever 10 year fund was a major success and source of real pride, exceeding social impact goals and making a difference thanks to long term funding and the comprehensive support offered by our philanthropy model.

Measurement of Success

Key indicators of success vary across the funds and programmes and include; the numbers of young people achieving positive destinations with respect to education, employment or training for the 14:19 Fund; the number of individuals who develop the confidence and capacity to seek solutions to their own problems for Link Up; the degree of increased access to, and take up of, free play provision for Thrive; and, improvements in health and wellbeing, and social and community engagement for intandem.

Key data on each fund is shown in the following table.

- 2) The number of charities supported includes charities supported financially and those which continue to be supported but are not funded in the current financial year.

During the year several surveys and evaluations were conducted to assess our impact within each fund and to learn how we can provide greater support to each individual charity. The results were insightful, rewarding and helpful in planning how to direct resources in the future. In addition, 14:19 Fund published an Annual Report that showcased the achievements over the 10 year period of the fund.

Blake Stevenson external evaluation of intandem found:

100% of mentors felt they had formed a strong and positive relationship with their mentee 64% of children and young people mentored reported having more friends.

Within the funds where Inspiring Scotland operates in a delivery partner role, common evaluation themes include the effectiveness of building capacity and resilience of the individual charities within the funds, identifying and disseminating key lessons and best practice across the portfolio, building and developing monitoring and evaluation competencies and developing leadership capability within the sector.

Cashback also recently celebrated its 10-year anniversary, the fund providing invaluable support over that time to its partners.

"We look at everything with an outcome focus now — we don't think about the project in terms of the activities that we deliver - much more about impact on young people and on communities. It changes the way you look at programmes - it has influenced how we design and deliver programmes" (CashBack partner)

"We are in a much better place as an organisation, much more robust" (CashBack Partner)

The overall success of Inspiring Scotland is measured by how effectively the funds deliver their social impact. A strong proxy for this is the renewal success on existing funds and conversion rates on potential new funds. During the year, Inspiring Scotland successfully renewed six funds (2018 – six funds). No funds were lost during the year.

Pro Bono

Inspiring Scotland's pro bono network of over 400 professional volunteers continues to play a vital role in complementing and enhancing the tailored development support offered to charities within our funds and also the wider sector.

During the year 2,433 hours (2018 - 2,975 hours) of support was provided including, volunteer trustees, individual mentoring, business planning, financial, legal and marketing. Inspiring Scotland also benefitted from significant pro bono assistance during the year, including the free use of rooms for pro bono training events and seminars, HR support, mentoring and development of staff and support with developing a fundraising pipeline.

Future Plans

The trustees have the following key strategic priorities for the coming year, as set out in the 2017-22 Corporate Plan:

- (1) The continuation of investment, by way of grants and capacity building support, in the funds designed, developed and operated by Inspiring Scotland.
- (2) Partnering with Scottish Government to support the management of key funds.

- (3) To expand our advisory service to support selected charities, not within existing funds or programmes, to build their capacity and resilience.
- (4) To seek new fund opportunities and develop thought leadership in addressing complex issues in Scotland and sharing learning.

In 2019, we are delighted to launch the successor to 14:19 - Our Future Now to help those young people who need the most intensive support. Partnering with a portfolio of charities committed to working with those experiencing the sharpest end of marginalisation, deprivation and struggle.

Fulfilment of the strategic aims will depend on renewal of donor pledges and grant awards each year, and on Inspiring Scotland raising additional income along the way. The general fundraising climate remains challenging, particularly with respect to funding core costs.

Financial review

Total income in the period was £10,381,985 (2018: £7,550,827) and was derived predominantly from grants and donations. The increase in turnover of £2.8m, (37.5%) was a result of increased funding to the Thrive portfolio (£0.7m), Survivors (£0.6m), Autism (£0.4m), Support in The Right Direction (£1.4m) and Learning Disabilities (£0.5m). The principal sources of funding in the period were government grants, charitable trusts and foundations grants, local authorities and donations from individuals and corporates.

Charitable expenditure in the period was £9,995,398 (2018: £7,928,607). This increase in costs was a result of an additional £1.9m of grants disbursed due to the growth in scale of the funds in the year.

Net incoming resources for the period were £386,587 (2018: outgoing resources of £377,780). This inflow was a result of the increase in scale of some funds and efficient use of resource.

A cumulative amount of £1,429,470 (2018: £1,258,490) was carried forward at 31 March 2019 as restricted funds, represented by the net assets of the funds as disclosed in note 19. This will be expended over the next year.

A total of £701,154 (2018: £485,547) Unrestricted funds is also carried forward with any surplus over required reserves used to fund further research and innovation across the organisation.

Principal Risks and Uncertainties

The trustees have examined the strategic, business and operational risks to which Inspiring Scotland is exposed. The trustees are satisfied that adequate systems and procedures have been established to identify and respond to such risks, as far as reasonably possible, after assessing their likelihood of occurrence, potential impact and the existing controls in place.

The Trustees and Senior leadership have established our risk appetite, this identifies potential risk events that may affect Inspiring Scotland and seeks to manage those risks.

The Audit Committee reviews the Risk Register at each quarterly meeting, and any updates and controls put in place by management. Risk Management is a standing agenda item for all Board and Audit Committee meetings. In addition, a Risks Early Warning Indicator report is provided monthly to the Board and Executive Management Team.

Some of the key risks currently being managed and mitigated include; dependency on one, or a handful of, key funders; development of sufficient long-term funding to support core expenditure; adequacy of liquid reserves; the impact of an independence referendum and the impact of Brexit. Top 3 Risks currently are:

Risk	Mitigating Actions
Over dependency on one funder	Continually evaluate added value and quality to ensure funders expectations met or exceeded. Focus on ongoing dialogue with key SG budget holders, decision makers and key influencers
Liquid reserves insufficient to continue as a going concern	Annual 24 month budget produced with key focus on unrestricted cash balances. Cash position presented to Board and any variances to actual investigated monthly SMT and Board focused on developing new opportunities.
Failure to develop sufficient long-term funding for core expenditure	24 month Unrestricted cashflow projections produced annually and updated regularly. Fundraising activities key focus for SMT and Board and reported and discussed regularly. Pricing model developed and being continually refined Continue to raise awareness of IS value across the sector

Reserves Policy

Inspiring Scotland's reserves policy is appropriate to its scale and the risks faced by the organisation. The level of reserves considered appropriate is the higher of three months' operating costs or the level of reserves required to protect the organisation against known or foreseen risks, as identified in the risk register. The balance held as unrestricted funds at 31 March 2019 was £0.7m with the cost of 3 months operations estimated at £0.6m which is within the target level.

The level of reserves is monitored and reported to the Board on a monthly basis.

Principal Funding Sources

Inspiring Scotland is wholly dependent on the continued support of external funders to finance the costs of its operations and grant-giving activities. The trustees seek to secure this support, in the case of each individual donor or grantor, on as long-term a basis as possible.

Given the predominantly voluntary nature of Inspiring Scotland's income base, an inherent conditionality attaches to future income projections. Accordingly, the trustees require that annual expenditure budgets, including those for grant-making activities, are subject to adjustment in the light of rolling assessment of income prospects throughout the year.

Investment Policy

Surplus cash is held in no notice deposits. Gifts of quoted shares and securities are disposed of as soon as practicable after transfer of ownership to Inspiring Scotland has been completed. The trustees will continue to review their investment policy in the light of fundraising progress over the coming year.

Going Concern Review

In considering the appropriateness of the going concern assumption, the trustees have assessed income prospects against projected operating expenditure, and the associated cash flow profile, through to March 2021.

The cash flow projections on which the trustees have based their assessment show that budgeted operating expenditure through to June 2020 is covered by general cash balances carried forward at 31 March 2019 and general-purpose income remittances due to be received in the period to June 2020. The anticipated timing of receipts is also sufficient to maintain liquidity throughout the period.

Structure, Governance and Management

Governing Document

Inspiring Scotland was incorporated on 6 May 2008 as a company limited by guarantee (Registered Company Number SC342436) and registered as a Scottish charity with the Office of the Scottish Charity Regulator ("OSCR") on 23 May 2008 (Registered Charity Number SC039605). It is governed by Articles of Association (adopted 15 December 2017) which replace the Articles of Association (adopted 4 July 2014).

Appointment of Trustees

The Board of Trustees is responsible for the appointment of additional Trustees from time to time and will in all future appointments follow the Scottish Governance Code for The Third Sector regarding diversity in all its forms.

The role of the Board includes strategic planning, financial and legal monitoring over a wide range of activities, and authorship and custodian of Inspiring Scotland's mission and values

The composition of the board aims to reflect the aspirations and activities of Inspiring Scotland. A range of skills, experience and personal qualities has been drawn up against which prospective candidates are measured. In addition, Inspiring Scotland has signed up to the Partnership for Change, working towards a 50/50 gender balance by 2020 whilst acknowledging Board composition should reflect diversity in all forms not only gender.

The number of trustees, who were also directors and members, at 31 March 2019 was seven (2018 – seven). The maximum number of trustees at any time is ten. None of the Trustees receive any remuneration for their role with the Board.

Trustee Induction and Training

Induction and training of trustees is provided on the history, aims, governance arrangements, regulatory framework and key policies of the organisation. Trustees are also offered opportunities to accompany staff on field visits to funded charities or attend portfolio days and actively attend when possible. Regular events presented by external advisors are held to ensure that Trustees are aware of new regulation, best practice and current issues relating to good governance within the sector.

Organisation

The organisation is governed by a board of trustees who are also directors within the meaning of the Companies Act. Matters of policy and ultimate responsibility for the financial solvency of the organisation are reserved to the board. The board meets at least four times a year. Day-to-day operational decisions are delegated to the Executive Management Team, led by a Chief Executive.

The names of those serving as trustees during the period are listed within reference and administrative details. The Articles of Association permit initial board appointments for a term of up to three years which may be renewed for a further period of up to three years. A third and fourth consecutive term of up to three years is permitted in exceptional circumstances. The maximum number of trustees at any time is ten.

Executive Management Team pay and total remuneration package is set by the board, with salary benchmarking advice being provided, as required, by recruitment experts on a pro bono basis.

The board is supported by an Audit Committee and a 14:19 Fund Advisory Group. Members of the Audit Committee are appointed by the Board and are independent. Members of the Advisory Group are volunteers with skills and experience appropriate to the 14:19 Fund, which tackles youth unemployment. The advisory group has no formal governance role but provides expert advice to the board.

The trustees seek to encourage the development of collaborative and joint learning approaches to the delivery of Inspiring Scotland's charitable purposes. The various stakeholders who are invested in Inspiring Scotland's funds and programmes all share this objective in common.

STATEMENT OF TRUSTEES RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 MARCH 2019

The trustees, who are also the directors of Inspiring Scotland for the purpose of company law, are responsible for preparing the Trustees Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Company Law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charitable company for that year.

In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

The trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended) and the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF INSPIRING SCOTLAND

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Inspiring Scotland (the 'charitable company') for the year ended 31 March 2019 which comprise the Statement of Financial Activities, the Balance Sheet, the Statement of Cash Flows and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards, including FRS 102 "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland" (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

In our opinion the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the state of the charitable company's affairs as at 31 March 2019 and of its incoming resources and application of resources, including its income and expenditure, for the year then ended;
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice; and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006, the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and regulation 8 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended).

Basis for opinion

We have been appointed auditor under section 44(1)(c) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and under the Companies Act 2006 and report to you in accordance with regulations made under those Acts.

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK) (ISAs (UK)) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the charitable company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the UK, including the FRC's Ethical Standard, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Conclusions relating to going concern

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters in relation to which the ISAs (UK) require us to report to you where:

- the trustees' use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is not appropriate; or
- the trustees have not disclosed in the financial statements any identified material uncertainties that may cast significant doubt about the charitable company's ability to continue to adopt the going concern basis of accounting for a period of at least twelve months from the date when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

Other information

The other information comprises the information included in the annual report other than the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and, except to the extent otherwise explicitly stated in our report, we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If we identify such material inconsistencies or apparent material misstatements, we are required to determine whether there is a material misstatement in the financial statements or a material misstatement of the other information. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Opinion on other matters prescribed by the Companies Act 2006

In our opinion, based on the work undertaken in the course of the audit:

- the information given in the Trustees Report for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements; and
- the Trustees Report has been prepared in accordance with applicable legal requirements.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

In the light of the knowledge and understanding of the charitable company and its environment obtained in the course of the audit, we have not identified material misstatements in the Trustees Report.

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters where the Companies Act 2006 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended) require us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- adequate and proper accounting records have not been kept, or returns adequate for our audit have not been received from branches not visited by us; or
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or
- certain disclosures of trustees' remuneration specified by law are not made; or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit.

Responsibilities of trustees

As explained more fully in the Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities, the trustees (who are also the directors of the charitable company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the trustees determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the trustees are responsible for assessing the charitable company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the trustees either intend to liquidate the charitable company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements is located on the Financial Reporting Council's website at: http://www.frc.org.uk/auditorsresponsibilities. This description forms part of our auditor's report.

Use of our report

This report is made exclusively to the members, as a body, in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006, and to the charity's trustees, as a body, in accordance with section 44(1)(c) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and regulation 10 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the members and the charity's trustees those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charity, its members as a body, and its trustees as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

1 Accounting policies

Charity information

Inspiring Scotland is a private company limited by guarantee incorporated in Scotland (company registration number SC342436). The registered office is Level 1 Riverside House, 502 Gorgie Road, Edinburgh, EH11 3AF.

The principal objectives of Inspiring Scotland are to promote such charitable purposes, within the meaning of section 7 of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, 'as the trustees shall think fit'. The charitable purposes under which the organisation is registered with OSCR pertain to the advancement of citizenship and community development.

Accounting convention

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with the charity's Articles of Association, the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 and "Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)". The charity is a Public Benefit Entity as defined by FRS 102.

The financial statements are prepared in sterling, which is the functional currency of the charity. Monetary amounts in these financial statements are rounded to the nearest £.

Going concern

The financial statements are prepared on a going concern basis, which the trustees consider to be appropriate in the light of their review of future income and expenditure prospects, and liquidity, as more fully described in the Trustees' Report.

Charitable funds

Unrestricted funds represent resources available for general use, at the discretion of the trustees, within the charitable purposes of the organisation.

Designated funds are funds earmarked for a particular future project or commitment. Designation has an administrative purpose only and does not legally restrict the Trustees' discretion in how to apply the unrestricted funds earmarked.

Restricted funds represent resources that are to be used strictly for purposes specified by donors and grant-givers.

Transfers to restricted funds reflect unrestricted funds available to cover support costs attributable to restricted fund activities.

Incoming resources

Donations and other voluntary income, including restricted grants received from grant-making trusts and foundations, are recognised when entitlement to the income has been established, their receipt is probable, and the expenditure of this income has been planned. Where expenditure is expected, but has not been planned, the income is deferred until formal spending plans have been finalised.

Assistance in the form of donated services provided directly to Inspiring Scotland is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities where the benefit to Inspiring Scotland is material, reasonably quantifiable and measurable. The value placed on the services is an estimate of the price of the service on the open market. A corresponding cost is reflected in resources expended. Donated services arranged by Inspiring Scotland through the pro bono network and provided directly to our charities are not recognised in Inspiring Scotland's accounts, but may be reflected in the beneficiary charity's accounts, if appropriate.

Grants received, including Government grants, which are not conditional on delivering certain levels or volumes of a service are treated as income from donations and legacies.

Income from service contracts is recognised on a proportion of the time spent in providing the service as a proportion of the latest estimated total time to be spent to fulfil the contract.

Bank interest is recognised in the period in which it is earned and allocated to the fund on which the interest was earned.

Where it has been expressly agreed with a donor or grantor, an earmarking is made from their donation or grant for application to general support costs. The corresponding amount is taken to general funds and treated as voluntary income, with the balance being treated as restricted income earned.

Resources expended

The costs of generating funds, charitable expenditure and support costs are charged to the activity to which the expenditure relates. Where they are not directly allocated, support costs, including shared services and property costs, are apportioned in line with staff time deployed in an activity.

Charitable activities consist of grant-making which is structured around a range of social impact funds and seeks to build organisational capacity and resilience through the provision of direct financial investment and in-kind support in the form of business consultancy, mentoring and related support costs.

All grants payable are subject to continuous monitoring and assessment against a range of performance measures, with formal reviews carried out prior to release of funding. Accordingly, grant expenditure is recognised in the period in which approval is confirmed and the payment is communicated to the charity, following the completion of a performance review.

The cost of assistance in the form of donated services provided directly to Inspiring Scotland is charged to the activity to which the expenditure relates and is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities where the value to Inspiring Scotland is material, reasonably quantifiable and measurable. The value placed on the services is an estimate of the price of the service on the open market. A corresponding income is reflected in incoming resources.

Intangible fixed assets other than goodwill

Inspiring Scotland capitalises software and website development expenditure as an intangible asset when it is able to demonstrate the technical feasibility, intention to complete the development and its ability to use the asset; how the intangible asset will generate probable future economic benefits; the availability of adequate resources to compete the development and to use or sell the intangible asset; and its ability to measure reliably the expenditure attributable to the asset during its development.

Capitalised development expenditure is initially recognised at cost and subsequently measured at cost less accumulated amortisation and accumulated impairment losses.

Amortisation is recognised so as to write off the cost of assets less their residual values over their useful lives on the following bases:

Software Websites

over 3 years, on a straight-line basis over 5 years, on a straight-line basis

Tangible fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets with a cost of £500 (previously £200) or more are capitalised and included in the balance sheet at cost less accumulated depreciation.

Assets transferred by way of gift are capitalised at their book value at the date of transfer and depreciated over their estimated remaining useful life on a straight-line basis.

Depreciation is recognised so as to write off the cost of assets less their residual values over their useful lives on the following bases:

Leasehold property Fixtures and fittings over the remaining lease term, on a straight-line basis over 5-10 years, in line with estimated remaining useful life,

on a straight line basis

IT equipment

over 3 years, on a straight-line basis

The gain or loss arising on the disposal of an asset is determined as the difference between the sale proceeds and the carrying value of the asset, and is recognised in net income/(expenditure) for the year.

Impairment of fixed assets

At each reporting end date, the charity reviews the carrying amounts of its tangible and intangible assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss (if any).

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash in hand, deposits held at call with banks, other short-term liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less, and bank overdrafts.

Financial instruments

The charity has elected to apply the provisions of Section 11 'Basic Financial Instruments' and Section 12 'Other Financial Instruments Issues' of FRS 102 to all of its financial instruments.

Financial instruments are recognised in the charity's balance sheet when the charity becomes party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

Financial assets and liabilities are offset, with the net amounts presented in the financial statements, when there is a legally enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Basic financial assets

Basic financial assets, which include debtors and cash and bank balances, are initially measured at transaction price including transaction costs and are subsequently carried at amortised cost using the effective interest method unless the arrangement constitutes a financing transaction, where the transaction is measured at the present value of the future receipts discounted at a market rate of interest. Financial assets classified as receivable within one year are not amortised.

Basic financial liabilities

Basic financial liabilities, including trade and other creditors are initially recognised at transaction price unless the arrangement constitutes a financing transaction, where the debt instrument is measured at the present value of the future payments discounted at a market rate of interest. Financial liabilities classified as payable within one year are not amortised.

Trade creditors are obligations to pay for goods or services that have been acquired in the ordinary course of operations from suppliers. Amounts payable are classified as current liabilities if payment is due within one year or less. If not, they are presented as non-current liabilities. Trade creditors are recognised initially at transaction price and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

Derecognition of financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are derecognised when the charity's contractual obligations expire or are discharged or cancelled.

Taxation

Inspiring Scotland is registered with OSCR as a charity for the purposes of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and is entitled under section I(7) of the Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) (Scotland) Act 1990 to describe itself as a Scottish charity.

Inspiring Scotland is entitled to exemption from corporate tax under part II of the Corporate Tax Act 2010 and section 256 of the Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992 in respect of charitable activities.

Irrecoverable VAT is included in resources expended within the expenditure to which it relates.

Employee benefits

The cost of any unused holiday entitlement is recognised in the period in which the employee's services are received.

Retirement benefits

Inspiring Scotland operates a defined contribution group personal pension plan for its employees. The assets of the scheme are held separately from those of Inspiring Scotland. Contributions due in the period are included in resources expended.

Leases

Leases are classified as finance leases whenever the terms of the lease transfer substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the leased asset to Inspiring Scotland. All other leases are classified as operating leases.

Rentals payable under operating leases are charged to income on a straight line basis over the term of the relevant lease. The aggregate benefit of lease incentives is recognised as a reduction to the expense recognised over the lease term on a straight line basis.

2 Critical accounting estimates and judgements

Preparation of the financial statements requires management to make significant judgements and estimates. The key area of judgement for Inspiring Scotland relates to the allocation of staff time of staff not directly attributable to the individual funds and programmes operated by Inspiring Scotland. The allocation of staff time affects both the staff costs allocated to the individual funds and the proportion of general expenses allocated to individual funds.

Staff costs that are not directly attributable to the individual funds and programmes operated by Inspiring Scotland are apportioned to activities on an appropriate time-cost basis.
